

Null solutions of difference systems under vanishing perturbation

Pinto, Manuel

For difference systems, the new concept expo-(h,k) dichotomy is introduced and exhaustively studied for being used in the asymptotic equivalence of null solutions. An application to Poincaré equations is shown.