

TABLE OF CONTENT

1. INTRODUCTION	1
2. REFERENCE FRAMEWORK	4
2.1 BACKGROUND TO INVESTIGATION PROBLEM.....	4
2.1.1 The importance of International Organizations in policy-making	4
2.1.2 The International Organizations for Childhood	7
2.1.3 Chile’s international commitments.....	8
2.1.4 The situation of Children and Adolescents in Chile.....	8
2.1.5 Michelle Bachelet’s child reform 2014 – 2018	11
2.2.1 Classification of International Organizations	15
2.2.2 Policy Influence.....	15
2.2.3 Policy Influence Interventions.....	16
2.2.4 Policy Influence Approaches.....	16
2.2.5 Types of Policy Influence.....	18
3. METHODOLOGICAL FRAMEWORK	21
3.1 Data Collection Methodology	21
3.2 Analysis unit.....	22
3.2.1 Institutional documentations and reports.....	22
3.2.2 National and International actors.....	22
3.3 Sampling.....	23
3.4 Analysis Plan	25
4. RESULTS ANALYSIS.....	26
4.1 Who were involved?.....	26
4.1.1 Advising the Chilean State through policy documents	28
4.1.2 Strengthening its advocacy efforts	30
4.1.3 UNICEF lobbying for the ‘ideal’ reform.....	31
4.2 Identification of the problem	34
4.2.1 Discord between the implementation and ratification of public policy.....	35
4.2.2 Reform the Law for Minors.....	35
4.2.3 National Policy on Children and Adolescents; National Council for Children.....	36
4.2.4 Ombudsman for Children	37
4.2.5 Child Reform does not cover all aspects	37
4.2.6 ‘Children’s rights from a universal perspective’ - International Organizations.....	38
4.2.7 Making the reform ideal – International Standards.....	40
4.3 Influence measurement.....	42
4.3.1 Little Interest and Little Influence	44
4.3.2 Great Interest and Little Influence.....	44
4.3.3 Great Interest	45
4.3.4 Great Influence and Great Interest.....	45
4.5 How are the IOs viewed?.....	46
5. CONCLUSION	49
6. BIBLIOGRAPHY	55
7. APPENDIX.....	58